Contra Costa County Supports Muslim Neighbors

Women's March in Contra Costa County, Next Step

When: Friday, 2/3/17, 12:30 PM
Where: Islamic Center, 2449 Buena Vista Ave, Walnut Creek
What: Interfaith community gathering in solidarity, love and peace to form a symbolic "peace ring" around the Center.

(Walnut Creek, Calif. - Jan. 30, 2017) - In response to recent immigration policies, as well as hate crimes against Muslim Communities in both Texas and Canada, the Women's March Contra Costa County/Walnut Creek organizers support the Walnut Creek Islamic Center as they host a Ring of Solidarity this Friday (Feb. 3, 2017) afternoon at 2449 Buena Vista Avenue in Walnut Creek. The gathering will commence between 12:30 and 1:00 PM. Those desiring to pray are welcome to do so at 1:30 PM. Immediately following prayer, we will come together as a community for songs and interfaith program of solidarity.

The Women's March Contra Costa County/Walnut Creek organizers plan to continue efforts at unifying our community by peacefully standing together, with our partners and children, for the protection of our rights, our safety, our environment, our health and our families--recognizing that our vibrant and diverse communities are the strength of our country. We call on all defenders of human rights to join us. We encourage you to take this opportunity to join our Muslim neighbors.
