

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact

Adina Zinn: adinajzinn@yahoo.com

Phone: 925-212-5993

Together We Rise! 3rd Annual Contra Costa Women's March

Men & Women Across Contra Costa County Join to March in Solidarity to Promote Civility, Compassion and Respect for our Planet

Walnut Creek, CA, December 23, 2018/ -- The Women's March became the largest protest in the history of our country. Five million marchers took to the streets throughout the United States and the world, sending a strong message of solidarity and resistance. This number included approximately 10,000 peaceful marchers in Contra Costa County. The organizers of Women's March Contra Costa are pleased to announce the 3rd Annual Women's March on January 19th, 2019. Other marches will be held simultaneously in San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose, Sacramento, Los Angeles, and many cities across the country.

All community members dedicated to preserving human rights, respect for diversity and compassion for our shared humanity and planet are encouraged to participate and join together.

The gathering will begin in Civic Park at 10:30 a.m., with the rally starting at 11:00 a.m. The march will start at approximately 11:30 at Civic Park and will circle downtown Walnut Creek. The event is non-partisan and all are welcome to attend.

WHAT: Women's March Contra Costa County

WHEN: Saturday, January 19th, 2019 beginning at 10:30am, ending at approximately 1:00pm

WHERE: Civic Park, Walnut Creek

RSVP: www.womensmarchcontracosta.org

Our group stands against hate in all its forms. Women's March Contra Costa denounces any statements against the Jewish and LGBTQIA+ communities and will continue take action to promote intersectionality and inclusivity as we continue to work toward our vision of restoring dignity, sharing humanity and promoting equity for all.

Women's March Contra Costa is a local movement dedicated to empowering, educating and mobilizing citizens of Contra Costa County to stand together in support of civil liberties and protecting our planet. As women, we stand in solidarity as the unifying force that binds families together and unites communities. Our focus is to support, educate and organize events providing meaningful connections, and to speak out against intolerance.

The planning committee, including a team of over 60 volunteers are working tirelessly to ensure that the event will be a safe and unifying family-friendly event. The Women's March Contra Costa County/Walnut Creek is committed to unifying our community, building new relationships, and creating grassroots change. We work peacefully while recognizing there is no true peace without justice and equity for all.

Women's March Contra Costa is a local, grassroots organization dedicated to promoting intersectionality and inclusivity. Our organization is distinctly independent of Women's March, Inc., a national organization. Women's March Contra Costa is independently funded and does not share any leadership, decision-making input or financial connection to Women's March, Inc.